BLUE AND GRAY VICTORS

Virginians Prove No Match for Their Snappy Rivals.

TEAM BATTING THE FEATURE

Bach Pitches Musterly Ball and Is Most Effective at Critical Times. Dawson's Playing Strong and Errorless-Visitors Fine Fielders, But Weak at Bat.

Had Georgetown 'Varsity team played the same class of ball against the lig Northern college teams a fortnight or so ago, it could have defeated them with the same degree of ease that it did University of Virginia yesterday afternoon on Georgetown Field, the score standing 12 to 6.

It was a great game notwithstanding the onesidedness of the score and the er-ters of the blue and gray, which, however, helped the visitors but little.

Collier, the great big pitcher of the laue and orange, was very easy for the locals, who touched him for 17 clean hits. He had good support, as his team is only charged with 2 errors. The team's weakness is in batting, and the eight gifts by Back, with any ordinary hitting, would have won the game.

Maloney, Reardon (2), McIntire, Bouney, Two-base-its-McNair, Kelly, Lamb, Stolen bases-Keily, Maloney (2), Hoxton, Martin, Collier, Double plays-Fleming to Reardon to Dawson. Hit by pitcher-By Collier, Maloney, Wild pitch-Collier, Passed ball-McNair, Umpire-Mr. Heydler, Time of game-2 hours and 20 minutes. Bach tood the rubber for Georgetown, and wife he was a trifle too generous with his passes to first, giving eight of them, he pitched masterly ball when the bases were occupied, and kept the six lits off his delivery well scattered. Virginia opened the game with Horton up, and he and Martin and Collier were retired on five balls pitched.

Georgetown tailled three times as an opening, and Kelley began by nitting safety to right, and promptly stole. Fleming's foul fly was taken in by Mellor. McCarthy was an easy out, and men, after two outs, the fusilade began with Beardon's pretty single over short, on which Kelley scored, Reardon following close belind on a passed hall. Lamb, not to be outdone, dropped a soft one in short left, and stole and and scored on Daw on a pretty dump over short. McIntire was out from Martin to Mellon. Three runs and four idis was a good beginning. Another van was scored in the second, after Virginia was again blanked in order on ssists from Flending to Dawson and one from Back to first. Maloney pinged before it was returned he was on third,

The Old Dominion scored her first run In the third on Keefe's base on balls, the first man to reach first for his side, and secred on Horton's fly to left, misjudged by McCarthy.

In the third two were added for Georgethree-bagger to the road, scoring on Lamb's single to right, and then after Dawson's single came McIntire's long drive to right, good for three bags, on which the first base-man scored. Maloney was hit by Collier. Bach walked, and with the bases full

The blue and orange drew blanks in the fourth and fith, while Georgetown found it easy picking and added three more in the

In their fifth the visitors gave opportunity for a pretty double. Bonney walked, Coch-rane was safe at first on fielder's choice, but was doubled with McNair on his hit to Fieming, he to Reardon to Dawson. Georgetown added two in the sixth and Virginia suit, running their total up to three. O'Keefe walked, but was caught napping at second. Hoxton was safe on fleider's choice. Martin gave Kelly an easy chance.

Hoxton stole and then scored on Collier's hit through Fleming. Mellor was safe on Malomey's error on the bunt at the plate and Steptoe followed up the momentary ablance of a breakdown by lutting to right, scoring "Tubby" Collier. George on Maloney's hit through O'Keefe, a steal, and scoring on Bach's drive to left. Kelly doubled to short left, and with the bases full, Fleming failed to connect safely; like-wise McCarthy, and Reardon ignominiously

Washington at Cleveland. Brooklyn at Chicago. Bultimore at St. Louis.

Pittsburg, May 15.-Pittsburg enjoyed the luxury today of winning from Mercer, a feat so rarely accomplished that it furnished sufficient excuse for the satisfaction noistly expressed by the crowd of 5,000 at the conclusion of the pitcher's

Mercer was not a mark by any means, but Tannyhill, Pittsburg's roung south paw-was steader and gave the Senators no chance to head off the Pirates, whose two doubles in the second inning carrie just when they were needed.

The game was fast and snappy. Tom Brown was in his old position in center, al-though his injured hand prevented him from grasping the bat firmly, and must have bothered him when he caught the ning, and was relieved by Wrigley. The accident to Abbey was peculiar. Charley sent a swift bounder inside the right line. stopped the ball and both men dashed for the bag. When within a few feet of it they jumped. Denney landed first, and McKean, ss.... they jumped. Denney landed first, and make a big obstacle in Abbey's path, and the right fielder received a severe jar.

Pittsburg scored the only runs of the game out. Doubles by Donovan and Sugden, a hit by pitcher, and DeMont's famble produced two tallies. The bases were filled when Ely ended the inning with a long fly to Brown. Three infield singles and one hit to right was the extent of Pittsburg's batting after that.

The Senators best opportunities were in the fifth and sixth innings. In the fifth Abbey doubled and Reilly singled after two were out, and in the next inning DeMont singled and Maguire doubled under similar conditions. The score:

YALE AN EASY VICTOR.

Has No Trouble in Winning the Track Games From Harvard.

New Haven, May 15 .- Yale had no diffihere this afternoon in the presence of a large gathering of spectators. Harvard get three firsts and the same number of secands and thirds to Yale's ten of each event best man in the sprints, wrenched a tender and it was feared Yale would lose the 100 and 220 yard races, but Fisher and Byers who have been doing only fair work, spuried and beat out the Harvard cracks. Harvard's athletes complained of the track being too heavy. It had been soaked by recent fains.

In the mile, Yale sprung a surprise on Harvard, young Spitzer purposely running Champion Dick Grant off his feet in the first lap, and then Buckingham and Spee pulling up and winning from the Harvard man on the final round.

Yale's chances of winning the interoliegiate games now are regarded as of 100 yards-Won by Byers, Yale; time, 10 2-5 seconds; Graff, Yale, second; Fisher, Yale, third. 220 yards-Won by Fisher, Yale; time, 22 2-5 seconds; Byers, Yale, second; Chappell, Yale, third 440 yards-Won by Hollister, Harvard; time, 50 4-5 seconds; Garvan, Yale, se cond; Vincent, Harvard, third.

JUVENILE SOLDIERS HERE

The American Guards of New York Visiting Washington.

They Are 150 Strong and Re-enforced by Fifty Pretty Maids - Welcome the President Home.

The First Battalion of the American Guards, of New York, are in the city on their second annual trip to the National Capital. The party, consisting of 100 juvenile soldiers, and about fifty girls, arrived from New York late Friday evening, and is accompanied by Principal Edward H. Boyer, of School No 87, and Prof. J. W. Davis, of School No. 66.,

The American Guard is a military organization of the public schools of the country, and the outcome of a suggestion by the national Grand Army encampment of 1883.

Immediately after their arrival, the young soldiers in full marching accourrenents, and with shoulder-arms, marched to the Oxford. The parade was led by a full drum and fife corps, under the command of J. W. Davis, which was followed by the guard, under the command of Major Louis H. Orr, jr., and Adjutant Harry Carberry. Capt. Frederick K. Pol-Mile run—Won by Speer, Yale; time, 4 minutes, 31 2-5 seconds, Backingham, Yale, second; Palmer, Yale, third.

Item commanded Company A. and Company B, was under the command of Capt. A Smoot. There was also a complete am misnee and relief corps, under the command of Sergt T. A. Meyer. The drum and fife corps and their friends are stopping at the Regent Hotel, and the ng ladies are registered at the Elsmers. This is the second annual excursion of the guards to the National Capitol, and is ntended to afford them the opportunity of gaining a practical object lesson of the mechanism of the Government of which they are a part. The visitors were busy all day yesterday sight-seeing and took in all the principal points of interest.

During the afternoon they visited the White House, and were received by Mrs. McKinley, each one shaking hands

At 9:45 last evening the party, after supper had been served at the Oxford, pro ceeded to the Sixth-street depot, and there received the President on his return from Philadelphia. When he arrived, he was given the Presidential salute, by special arrangement with the Chief Executive, through the War Department.

The young ladies of the party and their scoompanying friends were given a theater party at the National Theater last night. Today the boys will visit Arlington and Fort Myer, and will be the guests of Mr. the city in carriages, and will visit the Corcoran Art Gallery in the afternoon. The party will leave for New York at
